IMPROVED BREECH-LOADERS.

The several important improvements of the last three years are now most successfully combined in our best guns for the present season.

The easy and delightful self-action of the mechanism, the self-closing double or treble grip, sound, and even more durable than the old pattern lever; self-raising, rebounding locks, always at half-cock whether you will or no, curtailing manipulation, and the most effective safeguard against accidental discharge ever applied to a fowling piece.

The excellence and advantages of these and other important additions may be fully explained at either of our establishments and shooting grounds.

HISTORY

OFFICES OF THE SECRETARIES OF STATE,

1253 TO 1873.

THE earliest mention of a Secretary to The Sovereign occurs in the 37th year of the reign of Henry III, 1253.

There was only one Principal Secretary of State until the 30th year of the reign of Henry VIII, 1539, when the number was increased to two, both being of equal rank and authority.

Upon the union with Scotland, in the 6th year of the reign of Queen Anne, 1708, a third Principal Secretary of State was added, viz., for Scotch Affairs, but this appointment ceased in January, 1746.

In the 8th year of the reign of George III, January 20, 1768, a Principal Secretary of State for the American or Colonial Department was added, who was styled "Secretary of State for the Colonies," but this appointment was abolished in 1782 (Act 25 Geo. III. c. 82).

At the time when only two Principal Secretaries of State existed, the duties were divided between the North and South Departments—the Northern Department, or Province, included the Low Countries, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Russia, &c.; and the Southern Department, or Province, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, and Turkey, &c.

In the 17th year of the reign of George III, March 27, 1782, the terms "Northern" and "Southern" were discontinued; when the duties were divided between the "Home" and "Foreign" Departments—the affairs of Ireland and the Colonies devolving upon the elder of the two Secretaries.

In the 29th year of the reign of George III, July 17, 1794, a Principal Secretary of State for War was appointed; and the business of the Colonies, which had hitherto been carried on at the Home Department, was transferred to that Secretary, March 17, 1801.

In the 17th year of the reign of Victoria, June 12, 1854, a Fourth Principal Secretary of State was appointed, when the business of the War Department was separated from the Colonial Department.

In the 22nd year of the reign of Victoria, September 2, 1858, on the abolition of the East India Company's Charter, a Fifth Principal Secretary of State was appointed for the Affairs of India.

There are now Five Secretaries of State, viz., for the Home, Foreign, Colonial War, and India Departments.

the decoration of the Victoria Cross upon him on account of the following act of bravery performed by him, as shown by the following extract of the London Gazette of June 18, 1858:—"For persevering bravery and admirable conduct in charge of the wounded men left behind the column, when the troops, under the late Major-General Havelock, forced their way into the Residency, September 26, 1857. The escort left with the wounded, had, by casualties, been reduced to a few stragglers, and being entirely separated from the column, this small party with the wounded were forced into a house, in which they defended themselves till it was set on fire. They then retreated to a shed a few yards from it, and in this place continued to defend themselves for more than twenty-two hours, till relieved. At last only six men and Mr. Home remained to fire. Of four officers who were with the party, all were badly wounded, and three are since dead. The conduct of the defence during the latter part of the time devolved therefore on Mr. Home, and to his active exertions previously to being forced into the house, and his good conduct throughout, the safety of any of the wounded and the successful defence is mainly to be attributed." The sea at the time was running so heavily that no boat would venture to put off. There was also a general belief that it was impossible for a boat to be of any service. At this crisis, the British Vice-Consul at San Sebastian, Mr. E. B. March, after unsuccessfully entreating some of the bystanders to accompany him, plunged into the sea, swam to the vessel, and succeeded in bringing a rope to land. The rope was then secured, and one of the crew came safely to shore along it; the second, however—a lad—lost his hold, dropped into the sea, and sank. Then Mr. March, though benumbed with cold, at the greatest possible risk, again swam to the vessel, dived near her keel, recovered the lad, and brought him safe to land. The remainder of the crew—which consisted of six men in all—got safely to land. Mr. March was for a time completely prostrated from the effects of his exertions and the intense cold, but by care and attention he was restored; a result scarcely to have been expected under the circumstances." FORM OF INSTRUCTIONS TO PERSONS WHO MAY DESIRE TO COMMUTE CIVIL COMPENSATION ALLOWANCES, UNDER THE PENSIONS COMMUTATION ACT, 1871.

1. Any person who has retired or has been removed from a public civil office* in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the Department to which he belonged, to whom an annual pension has been granted by way of compensation for such retirement or removal, and who may be desirous of commuting such pension under the Pensions Commutation Act of 1871, must make application in writing to the head or heads of the Department to which he belonged, stating his desire so to commute, and furnishing information as to his age, the office which he held, and the amount of his compensation allowance.

2. If the head of the Department to which he belonged shall think proper to recommend the commutation under the fourth clause of the 4th section of the Act, the person will be so informed by the head of the Department, and his application will be forwarded to the Commutation Board for consideration.

3. The person will then receive further instructions from that Board.

4. The Commutation Board will require the person to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to assure their lives in assurance companies, and he will be required to submit himself for personal examination at the office of the Board at the National Debt Office, 19, Old Jewry, in the City of London.

5. The basis of the commutation will be the following Table, subject to an addition of years of age in the case of impaired lives.

6. The amount of money to be paid in commutation of the pension will be fixed by the Treasury on the recommendation of the Commutation Board. The applicant will then be informed of the amount, and he will have the option of withdrawing his application on the payment of a fee of 3l. 3s. within 30 days after receiving that notice.

7. If the applicant shall not withdraw his application and pay the above fee within that period the decision will be considered final, and the commutation of pension will take place absolutely.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force, July 1873.)

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

IN order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns: that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

IN order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

10. That they have a general knowledge of political economy, to be acquired from Adam Smith's "Wealth of Nations," and Mill's "Political Economy."
11. That they are generally intelligent, as evinced by the manner in which they acquit themselves under examination, and specifically by the quickness they may show in seizing the points in papers read by them, or read over to them, once or twice.

II. Candidates who, after statutable residence, have taken a degree in one of the Universities of the United Kingdom will be exempted from examination in all the above-mentioned subjects, except handwriting, précis, and French.

Candidates who have passed the first public examination in Classics at one of the Universities in Great Britain or Ireland, or at the Royal Academy at Woolwich, or one of the public examinations for the Army or Navy, will be exempted from being examined in Latin; but candidates claiming this exemption must, on going up for examination, exhibit to the Civil Service Commissioners a certificate from the duly constituted authorities, examiners, or others, under whom they have been examined, that they have passed the first public examination in Classics, in whatever manner that examination may have been conducted, and to whatever point directed.

III. The services of Attachés will reckon from the date of the certificate granted by the Civil Service Commissioners, and will be considered as probationary for two years from that date, during which period the Attachés must have been employed for 6 months in the Foreign Office, and must also have actually resided at one of Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, or have been actually employed in the Foreign Office for such a time as in the aggregate will make up a further period of eighteen months, exclusive of any leave of absence, during either period. The time, however, necessarily employed in journeys to and from Missions out of Europe will be allowed to count towards the completion of the required term. If these conditions as to employment and residence have not been fulfilled at the expiration of two years from the date of the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, the probationary period will be prolonged until they have been fulfilled.

IV. Commissions as Third Secretaries under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual will be granted to Attachés, on the termination of the probationary period, and on the fulfilment of the conditions specified in the present Regulations, together with a Salary at the rate of 150*l.* a-year, provided that their general character and conduct, during the time they have served, have been satisfactory, and that the Minister under whom they have last served certifies that, as far as he has the means of forming an opinion, they understand and speak French well, and also one other foreign language.

V. Third Secretaries who may after examination satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they possess a competent knowledge of public law, will receive while serving in that class an additional allowance of 100*l.* a-year.

VI. Second Secretaries will constitute an Intermediate Class between 3rd Secretaries and Secretaries of Legation. They will receive a minimum salary of 300*l.* a-year, increasing by 15*l.* a-year until it reaches a maximum of 450*l.* a-year. But Second Secretaries at those posts to which a higher salary than 300*l.* a-year is assigned will not receive this annual increment until they shall be entitled by length of service to a salary greater than that so assigned.

VII. Secretaries of the Second and Third Classes may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, be appointed indiscriminately to serve either in an Embassy or Mission, without reference to their previous employment in one or other of them. They are to be designated as Third or Second Secretary in the specific Embassy or Mission in which they may at that time be employed, but not as Third or Second Secretary of Embassy or Legation.

VIII. Any Secretary of Embassy or of Legation, Second or Third Secretary or Attaché on probation, who shall be reported by the head of the Mission in which he is employed to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial or otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of the Russian, Turkish, Persian, Japanese, or Chinese language, while serving in any country where such language is vernacular, shall receive a special allowance of 100*l.* a-year over and above any other salary or allowance which he may be in receipt of.

IX. In virtue of Her Majesty's Commissions, the service of Second and Third Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43, from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they remain Second or Third Secretaries, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted, provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the sixtieth year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as Second or Third Secretary.

X. Second or Third Secretaries and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than two years in the same Embassy or Mission, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave. But the Secretary of State reserves to himself full power to extend the term beyond two years in every case in which he judges that there are special public reasons for so doing.

XI. The minimum salary of a Secretary of Legation will be 500*l.* a year.

XII. Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, Second and Third Secretaries and Attachés, will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal for promotion, or other public reason, be allowed their actual travelling expenses by land, or the actual amount of their passages by sea, either from England to their post, or from one foreign post to another; and in the case of Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, and of Second Secretaries, the like expenses will be allowed to them for one servant, if they have one; and they will further be allowed subsistence money for themselves, but not for their servant, at the rate of one pound a day, while travelling by land, and by sea if subsistence is not included in the passage money. In the event of a passage being afforded to Secretaries or Attachés on board one of Her Majesty's ships of war, the allowances made will be in conformity with the Admiralty Regulations; but the travelling expenses and subsistence of the families of Secretaries of Attachés will not be allowed.

No allowance will be made to Members of the Diplomatic Service for journeys undertaken for their own convenience, in pursuance of leave of absence.

XIII. In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, all Secretaries and Attachés will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and in that case they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road.

XIV. It is to be distinctly understood that, in future, all the Members of the Diplomatic Service will be expected to take their turn in whatever part of the world their services may be required; and that, except as regards Tehran and Pekin, where no accommodation can be procured for married men, every Secretary or Attaché, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to the post at which the requirements of the public service demand his presence, and to which he may be appointed.

XV. The Secretary of State, should he see occasion, will, for the advantage of the public service, allow Second and Third Secretaries, and Attachés to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the three Junior Classes in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends, in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange, making in either case any allowance to such parties that he may consider just and reasonable.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will respectively rank, in the Embassy or Mission, and Foreign Office, as the case may be, during the period for which the interchange shall last, after the Junior in the class of Secretaries or Clerks to which either of them belongs.

A First-class Junior Clerk who may be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service will receive a Commission as Second Secretary; a Second or Third Class Junior Clerk will similarly receive a Commission as Third Secretary.

Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office temporarily employed in a Special or in an Ordinary Embassy or Mission, will in like manner receive, according to their class, Acting Commissions as Second or Third Secretaries.

XVI. Heads of Missions will be required to report annually, on the 1st of January in each year to the Secretary of State the mode in which, during so much of the preceding year as they shall have served in such Mission, each Second and Third Secretary and Attaché in his Mission has discharged his public duty, and such reports will be duly considered before any promotion or increase of pay or promotion is accorded to the persons to whom they apply. These reports will be considered to be strictly confidential, and it will rest with the Secretary of State to determine as to extenuating circumstances when they are unfavourable.

XVII. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the Queen to name any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it, and, generally, in regard to all promotions whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority or membership of the profession from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

XVIII. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years; and at the expiration of five years the question of reappointment, though in that case not involving fresh credentials, or of transfer to another Mission, shall be open for consideration.

XIX. With a view to relieve the Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the deduction to be made from their salaries will in future be limited, for a period not exceeding 60 days from the date of their departure from their posts, to the sum required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargé d'Affaires according to the Regulations which may be in force at the time being; on the expiration of which period the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of sixty days may either be one of sixty consecutive days, or of sixty days occurring at intervals in the course of one year, beginning on the 1st of January and ending on the 31st of December. As regards, however, Heads of Missions whose continued residence abroad may have extended over several years, and also as regards Heads of Missions in non-European countries, the Secretary of State will be prepared to consider whether some extension of the period of exemption from being placed on half-pay beyond sixty days may not be recommended to the Treasury.

XX. Members of the Diplomatic Service of all ranks on leave of absence must leave with or send to the Doorkeeper of the Foreign Office an address to which letters may be sent for them; and Secretaries and Attachés, previously to leaving England to proceed to or return to their posts, must notify the time of their intended departure to one of the Under-Secretaries of State.

XXI. Should an Ambassador, Minister, or Secretary of whatever class, by reason of war or other interruption of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, recommend that a temporary allowance should be assigned to any such person who cannot otherwise be immediately employed, calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance, however, to be strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the XIth section of the Act of 32nd and 33rd Vict., c. 43, and to cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of Diplomatic relations.

These Regulations will take effect from the 1st January, 1873.

Foreign Office, December 16, 1872.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force. (1855.)

(In force, July 1873.)

FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Service before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previous to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV, on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Foreign Office, May 10, 1855.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy, for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the Decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. An officer, soldier, marine, or sailor must, however, first obtain permission from the Commander-in-Chief, or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

CLARENDON.

Foreign Office, January 1870.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. Applications for Foreign Office Passports must be made in writing; and inclosed in a cover addressed to "The Chief Clerk, Foreign Office, London," with the word "PASSPORT" conspicuously written on the cover.

2. The charge on the issue of a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is 2*s.*; and if it is desired that the passport should be sent by post, that sum must be forwarded with the application for the passport by a Post Office order, made payable at the Post Office, Charing Cross, London, to the Chief Clerk of the Foreign Office, Francis B. Alston, Esq. Postage stamps will not be received in payment.

3. Foreign Office Passports are granted only to British-born subjects, or to such foreigners as have become naturalized either by Act of Parliament or by a Certificate of Naturalization granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department. When the party is a "Naturalized British subject," he will be so designated in his passport; and if his certificate of naturalization be dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, and previously to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will be marked as good for one year only; or should the certificate be dated subsequently to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will in that case be marked as good for six months only, except in cases where a licence for a longer period of residence abroad has been granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department: but this regulation will not preclude any person whom it affects from obtaining, at the Foreign Office, at any future time, on his producing his old passport, a fresh passport in exchange for it for a further limited period, without being required to pay a fresh charge. A Foreign Office passport granted to a British-born subject, or to a "Naturalized British subject" who has been naturalized by Act of Parliament, or whose certificate of naturalization is dated previously to the 24th of August, 1850, is not limited in point of time, but is available for any time, or for any number of journeys to the Continent. Aliens naturalized as British subjects under the Naturalization Act, 1870 (33 Vict. c. 14), will also receive passports unlimited in point of time, but subject to the qualification mentioned in the 7th Clause of the Act.

4. Passports are granted to all persons either known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the application of any Banking Firm established in London, or in any part of the United Kingdom; or upon the production of a Certificate of Identity (see subjoined Form) signed by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom. In certain cases, the production of a Certificate of Birth may be demanded.

5. If the applicant for a passport be a Naturalized British subject, his certificate of naturalization, with his signature subscribed to the oath printed on the third page of it, must be forwarded to the Foreign Office with the certificate of identity granted on his behalf; and his certificate of naturalization will be returned with the passport to the person who may have granted the certificate of identity, in order that he may cause such Naturalized British subject to sign the passport in his presence. The agents at the outports are not authorized to grant passports to naturalized British subjects, and such persons, if resident in London or in the suburbs, must apply personally for their passports at the Foreign Office.

6. Passports are issued at the Foreign Office, between the hours of 11 and 4, on the day following that on which the application for the passport has been received at the Foreign Office.

7. A passport cannot be issued by the Foreign Office, or by an agent at an outport, on behalf of a person already abroad; such person, being a British-born subject, should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate. A passport cannot be issued abroad to a naturalized British subject, except for a direct journey to England, or in the case of a colonial naturalized subject for a journey back to the colony where he has been naturalized. Neither can a passport granted at the Foreign Office to a naturalized British subject for a limited period be renewed by Her Majesty's Diplomatic or Consular Agents in foreign countries; but only at the Foreign Office.

8. The bearer of every passport granted by the Foreign Office should sign his passport as soon as he receives it: without such signature either the visa may be refused, or the validity of the passport questioned abroad. Travellers who may have any intention of visiting the Russian Empire at any time in the course of their travels are particularly and earnestly advised not to quit England without having had their passports visés at the Russian Consulate in London, 17, Great Winchester-street, E.C. 32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43.—2 August, 1869.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the payment of the salaries, allowances, and pensions of persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service out of moneys provided by Parliament instead of out of the Consolidated Fund, and otherwise to amend the law respecting the same:

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Diplomatic Salaries, &c., Act, 1869."

Commencement of Act.

2. This Act shall come into operation as on and from the 1st day of April, 1869, which day is in this Act referred to as "the commencement of this Act."

Interpretation of Terms.

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
The term "Treasury" means the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:
The term "Secretary of State" means that one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State who is entrusted with the Seals of the Department for Foreign Affairs, or performs the duties of that Department.

Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, and part of Sections 12 and 13 of 2 & 3 Wm. IV, cap. 116, and 22 & 23 Vict., cap. 5, repealed.

4. Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the Act of the session of the 2nd and 3rd Years of William IV, chapter 116, "to provide for the salaries of certain high and judicial officers, and payments hitherto made out of the Civil List revenues," and so much of sections 12 and 13 of the same Act as relates to diplomatic salaries, allowances, and pensions, and the whole of the Act of the session of the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 5, "to remove doubts as to the qualification of persons holding diplomatic pensions to sit in Parliament," are hereby repealed, as from the commencement of this Act.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect any pensions now payable under the said Act; and those pensions shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, and the accounts thereof shall be laid before Parliament in the same manner as if this Act had not passed.

Salaries, Pensions, &c., Payable out of Annual Votes.

5. After the commencement of this Act all salaries, allowances, and pensions (other than pensions granted before the commencement of this Act) payable to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, and shall be paid on such days and in such manner as the Treasury may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, from time to time appoint.

Amounts of Diplomatic Pensions.

6. After the commencement of this Act the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, may grant pensions during life to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, not exceeding the salary which the pensioner may be receiving at the time that his active employment ceases, and not exceeding the following amounts; namely:

(1.) 1,700*l.* per annum for a 1st class pension.
(2.) 1,300*l.* per annum for a 2nd class pension.
(3.) 900*l.* per annum for a 3rd class pension.
(4.) 700*l.* per annum for a 4th class pension.

Qualifications for Pension.

7. With respect to the qualifications for pensions under this Act, the following provisions shall have effect:

(1.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of any class, until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, and unless he has actually served in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 10 years:

(2.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 1st class unless he has been an Ambassador, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 3 years:

(3.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 2nd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the first class, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:

(4.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 3rd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the second class, or a Minister Plenipotentiary, or a Minister Resident, or a Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in some foreign State or States, or a Chargé d'Affaires in some foreign State or States, where no other Diplomatic Representative is usually appointed to reside on behalf of Her Majesty, or an Agent and Consul-General in some foreign State or States where his duties have been generally of a political character, and in one or more of those capacities has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:

(5.) A period of residence in any capacity which, if continued, would be a qualification for any class of pension may count as part of the qualification for a lower class of pension.

Pension to Invalided Secretaries.

8. Where a person holding a commission as Second or Third Secretary in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, and having served in such capacities, or one of them, for a period not less than five years, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him an allowance during his life, not exceeding for each year of his service in the said capacities, or one of them (if he has only served in one), one-thirtieth part of the amount of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Allowance in case of Bodily Injury.

9. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned without his own default in the discharge of his duty, is constrained to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him a gratuity not exceeding the amount of three months' salary for every two years of service, or a pension not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Temporary Pension on Rupture of Diplomatic Relations.

10. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, who is serving in any foreign State in any capacity, and is, by reason of war or any interruption of diplomatic relations, withdrawn from active service before he has completed the term of service and period of residence which, under the provisions of this Act, would entitle him to a pension for having served in such capacity, the Treasury, at the request of the Secretary of State, may grant to him a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and character of his services.

Every such allowance shall cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of diplomatic relations.

Forfeiture of Pension on Refusal to Serve again.

11. If any person who is in receipt of a pension or temporary allowance under this Act, and has not attained the age of sixty years, and is not incapacitated by infirmity of mind or body (proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, by a medical certificate or otherwise), refuses, when required so to do by the Secretary of State, to proceed to any Mission which is of the same rank as that in respect of which his pension was granted, or to some Mission of higher rank, he shall forfeit his right to the pension and allowance.

Suspension of Payment on Holding other Offices.

12. Where a person having any pension or allowance under this Act is appointed to any office of profit under the Crown, or to any office the salary of which is payable out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament, whether such office is in the United Kingdom or not, his pension and allowance, so long as he continues to hold such office, shall, if the emoluments of such office are equal to or larger than the pension or allowance, be suspended, and if the emoluments of such office are less than the pension or allowance, be diminished by the amount of such emoluments.

Determination of Class of Missions.

13. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to determine the foreign States the Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary at which are thereafter to be deemed on First and Second Class Missions respectively for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Such determination shall be signified in writing under the hand of the Secretary of State to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the signing thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session.

The arrangement existing at the commencement of this Act as to such First and Second Class Missions shall, until and except so far as altered under the provisions of this section, continue in force for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Employment beyond Limits of State.

14. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service is actually employed beyond the limits of the foreign State in which, under the terms of his credentials or commission he should properly reside, and is so employed on a special diplomatic mission or service, whether in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or (being a Second or Third Secretary) is so employed for the advantage of the public service in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, he shall, for the purposes of a pension under this Act, be deemed, during the time that he is so actually employed, to have been actually residing in such foreign State.

Pension on Transfer from Civil (or Consular) to Diplomatic Service, and vice versâ.

15. Where a person in the Consular Service or in any other branch of the Civil Service of Her Majesty is appointed to some employment in the Diplomatic Service, or where a person in the Diplomatic Service is appointed to some employment in the Civil Service of the State in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, and such person may suffer prejudice in regard to his retiring allowance by reason of his not continuing in his former service, the Treasury may award to him, on his retirement from active service, such pension or superannuation allowance under this Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, or one of them, as in their opinion will prevent his suffering such prejudice and is just, having regard to his services; but save as aforesaid a person receiving a pension under this Act shall not be entitled to any superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859. (22 & 23 Vict., cap. 26.)

Pension, &c., to be Free from Taxes.

16. Every pension, allowance, and gratuity under this Act shall be paid to the person entitled to the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties at present existing, except the tax upon income.

Pensioner may Sit in House of Commons.

17. A pension under this Act shall not disqualify the holder for being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

An Act to remove doubts as to the Qualification of PERSONS HOLDING CIVIL SERVICE PENSIONS, OR RECEIVING SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES, TO SIT IN PARLIAMENT.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 15.—24 June, 1869.

WHEREAS the Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., Chapter 24, and of the 22nd year of Her Majesty, Chapter 26, regulate the conditions on which pensions, compensations, and allowances shall be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in Her Majesty's service:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether such pensions, compensations, or allowances, being those of reward and recompense for civil services authorized by Parliament, come within the provisions of the Act of the 6th year of Queen Anne, Chapter 7, which renders any person holding a pension from the Crown during pleasure incapable of being elected or of sitting and voting as a Member of the House of Commons:

Be it therefore enacted; and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:

1. That pensions, compensations, or allowances granted for civil services according to the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV. and the 22nd year of Her Majesty, or any other Act or Acts whatever, shall not disqualify the holder from being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

2. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any of the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., and 22nd Victoria, Chapter 26, or of the Act of the 20th and 21st years of Her Majesty, Chapter 37.

CIVIL SERVICE AND CONSULAR PENSIONS.

(1.) An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service.

4 & 5 Will. IV., c. 24.—25 July, 1834.*

Pensions to the First Lord of the Treasury, Secretaries of State, Chancellor of the Exchequer, First Lord of the Admiralty, President of the India Board, President of the Board of Trade.

Whereas by an Act passed in the 57th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George III [cap. 65], to enable His Majesty to recompense the services of persons holding or who have held certain high and efficient civil offices, His Majesty is empowered to grant pensions, as therein provided, to persons who shall have served His Majesty, his heirs or successors, in the offices therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act passed in the 6th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George IV, for amending the said recited Act, it is enacted, that the several other offices therein particularly described shall be deemed to be comprised in the several classes of offices in the said recited Act respectively specified: And whereas it is expedient that the amount of the pensions by the said two Acts authorized to be granted should as to future pensions be reduced, and the conditions under which the same shall be granted be altered and regulated: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act no pension to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in any one or more of the offices of First Lord of the Treasury, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or Chancellor of the Exchequer, or First Lord of the Admiralty, or President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, or President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, shall exceed the sum of 2,000*l.* per annum; nor shall any such pension be granted to any person unless he shall have held one or more of the said offices for a period of not less than 2 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 4 such pensions hereafter to be granted be existing or in force at the same time.

Chief Secretary of Ireland, Secretary at War.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no pension to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in either or both of the offices of Chief Secretary for Ireland or Secretary at War shall exceed the sum of 1,400*l.* per annum; nor shall any such pension be granted to any person unless he shall have held one or both of the said offices for a period of not less than 5 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 2 such last-mentioned pensions be existing or in force at the same time.

Joint Secretaries of the Treasury, First Secretary of Admiralty, Vice-President of Board of Trade.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no pension to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in one or more of the offices of one of the Joint Secretaries of the Treasury, or First Secretary of the Admiralty, or Vice-President of the Committee of Commissioners appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, shall exceed the sum of 1,200*l.* per annum; nor shall any such pension be granted to any person unless he shall have held one or more of the said offices for a period of not less than 5 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 4 such last-mentioned pensions be existing or in force at the same time.

Under Secretaries of State, Clerk of the Ordnance, Second Secretary of Admiralty, Secretaries of India Board.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the pension, not exceeding 1,000*l.*, authorized by the said recited Act to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in any one or more of the offices of one of the Under Secretaries of State, or Clerk of the Ordnance, or Second Secretary of the Admiralty, or one of the Secretaries of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, shall not be granted to any such person unless he shall have held one or more of the said offices for a period of not less than 10 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 6 such last-mentioned pensions be existing or in force at the same time.

Regulation as to Period of Service.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case it shall happen that any person shall have served His Majesty, his heirs, or successors, in more than one class of offices herein-before specified, in respect whereof any pension less than 2,000*l.* may be granted, it shall be lawful to grant, under the Regulations aforesaid, to such person, any pension annexed to the highest class of office in which such person may have been employed, whenever the whole period of the service of such person in the several offices in which he shall have been employed shall amount to 10 years, although the period of the service of such person in such highest class shall not have extended to the period of 5 years; provided always, that such person shall have served in such highest class for the period of not less than 3 years; and in cases in which the service of any such person in any class of those offices shall not be sufficient to entitle him to the pension of that class, it shall be lawful to grant him a pension not exceeding 1,000*l.*, provided the period of his aggregate services in that and any inferior class or classes or department of the public service shall amount to 10 years: Provided also, that there shall not be more than the aforesaid number of pensions to that amount existing at the same time.

Declaration to be made by Persons claiming Pensions.

VI. And whereas the principle of the Regulations for granting allowances of this nature is and ought to be founded on a consideration, not only of the services performed by the individual to the State, but of the inadequacy of his private fortune to maintain his station in life: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this said Act whenever any person shall seek to obtain any one of the pensions before mentioned his application for that purpose shall be made in writing to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to which he shall subscribe his name, and which shall contain, not only a statement of the services performed by him, and the grounds on which such pension is claimed, but a specific declaration that the amount of his income from other sources is so limited as to bring him within the intent and meaning of this Act and the principle herein-above declared, and without such declaration no pension as herein-before provided or authorized shall be granted.

Regulations with respect to Pensions contained in recited Acts to apply to Pensions under this Act.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the several regulations with respect to the granting of any of the before-mentioned pensions, and to the receipt thereof by the persons to whom such grants may be made, which are contained in the said recited Act of the 57th years of King George III and the 6th year of King

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any person an absolute right to compensation for past services, or to any superannuation or retiring allowance under this Act, or to deprive the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the heads or principal officers of the respective departments, of their power and authority to dismiss any person from the public service without compensation.

Act may be amended this Session.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present session of Parliament.

Application of Act to Persons already in the Civil Service, but without Prejudice to existing Rights.

III. Nothing herein contained shall interfere with the grant, to the officers and clerks who entered the public service prior to the 5th day of August, 1829, of such superannuation allowances as might hereafter have been granted to them under section 9 of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, or shall prevent, restrict, or diminish, any other superannuation allowance, pension, gratuity, or compensation which, if this Act had not been passed, might hereafter have been granted to any person who shall have entered the public service before the passing of this Act, but, except as aforesaid, the provisions hereinafter contained shall apply as well to persons who have already entered the public service, whether before or after the said 5th day of August, 1829, as to those who may hereafter enter the public service.

Provision for computing Amount of Superannuation to Persons holding professional and other special Offices.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury from time to time, by any order or warrant, to declare that for the due and efficient discharge of the duties of any office or class of offices to be specified in such order or warrant, professional or other peculiar qualifications, not ordinarily to be acquired in the public service, are required, and that it is for the interest of the public that persons should be appointed thereto at an age exceeding that at which public service ordinarily begins: and by the same or any other order or warrant to direct that when any person now holding or who may hereafter be appointed to such office, or any of such class of offices, shall retire from the public service, a number of years not exceeding 20, to be specified in the said order or warrant, shall, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance which may be granted to him under the foregoing section of this Act, be added to the number of years during which he may have actually served, and also to direct that in respect of such office or class of offices, the period of service required to entitle the holders to superannuation may be a period less than 10 years, to be specified in the order or warrant; and also to direct that, in respect of such office or class of offices, the holder may be entitled to superannuation, though he may not hold his appointment directly from the Crown, and may not have entered the service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners: Provided always, that every order or warrant made under this enactment shall be laid before Parliament.

Allowances in cases of bodily Injury.

V. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, but not having completed the period which would have entitled him to a superannuation allowance, is compelled to quit the public service by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned, without his own default, in the discharge of his public duty, a gratuity not exceeding 3 months pay for every 2 years of service, or a superannuation allowance not exceeding 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of this office.

Power to Treasury to grant Gratuities in case of short Service.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances on Abolition of Offices.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special annual allowance by way of compensation, as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case may seem to the said Commissioners to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office; and if the compensation shall exceed the amount to which such person would have been entitled under the scale of superannuation provided by this Act if 10 years were added to the number of years which he may have actually served, such allowance shall be granted by special minute, stating the special grounds for granting such allowance, which minute shall be laid before Parliament, and no such allowance shall exceed 2-3rds of the salary and emoluments of the office.

Condition of Grant of full Superannuations to public Servants not Heads of Departments.

VIII. It shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances for special Services, and for Demerits in individual Cases.

IX. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance of greater amount than the amount which might be awarded to him under the foregoing provisions, when special services rendered by such person, and requiring special reward, shall appear to them to justify such increase, but so that such allowance shall in no case exceed the salary and emoluments enjoyed by the grantee at the time of retirement, and the grounds of every such increase shall be stated in a minute of the Treasury, which shall be laid before Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any person any such allowance of less amount than otherwise would have been awarded to him where his defaults or demerit in relation to the public service appear to them to justify such diminution.

Evidence of Infirmity of Persons under Sixty.

X. It shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this Act to any person who shall be under 60 years, unless upon medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

Persons superannuated under Sixty may be required to serve again.

XI. Every person to whom a superannuation or compensation allowance shall have been granted before he shall have attained the age of 60 years shall, until he has attained that age, be liable to be called upon to fill, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he shall before have served, any public office or situation under the Crown for which his previous public services may render him eligible; and if he shall decline, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or shall decline or neglect to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the compensation or superannuation allowance which had been granted to him.

XII. And whereas it shall be for the advantage of the public service that officers holding employments entitling them to superannuation allowances under this or other Acts shall be eligible for other public employments at home and abroad, without forfeiting their claims to such allowances:

Every officer already or hereafter to be transferred from employment entitling him to superannuation allowance to public employment under the Crown not so entitling him shall be entitled, on his ultimate retirement from the public service, to the same allowance as if he had continued to hold the vacated appointment and at the same rate of salary as when the same was vacated, subject nevertheless to the conditions which would in that case have been applicable with respect to the grant of such allowance; provided that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, in the case of officers transferred to governorships and lieutenant-governorships of colonies, and other high offices abroad, conferred for a limited period, to grant such superannuation allowance to such officers on the expiration of such term of service without a renewal of public employment; but any officer to whom such grant is made while under the age of 60 years shall be subject to the same liability to be called upon to fill office under the Crown, as herein provided concerning other persons under that age to whom like allowances are granted.

Allowances to be paid free from Taxes.

XVI. All superannuations, compensations, gratuities, and other allowances granted or hereafter under this Act to be granted, shall be paid to persons entitled to receive the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties whatever at present existing, except the tax upon property or income.

Who to be deemed Civil Servants.

XVII. For the purposes of this Act, no person hereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners; nor shall any person, already appointed to any office, be held to have served in the permanent Civil Service as aforesaid, unless such person belong to a class which is already entitled to superannuation allowance, or to a class in which, if he had been appointed thereto subsequently to the passing of this Act, he would, as holding his appointment directly from the Crown, or as having been admitted into the Civil Service with such certificate as aforesaid, have become entitled to such allowance; and no person shall be entitled to any superannuation allowance under this Act, unless his salary or remuneration has been provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of monies voted by Parliament.

PENSIONS TO SLAVE TRADE COMMISSIONERS.

[Extracted from Parliamentary Paper, No. 94, Session I, 1859.]

Treasury Minute, November 22, 1842.

Scale of Pensions, &c., for Mixed Commission Courts for Suppression of the Slave Trade.

READ letter from the Earl of Aberdeen, dated 15th instant, referring to the treaty concluded, on the 3rd July last between Great Britain and Portugal for the suppression of the slave trade, and calling their Lordships' attention to the necessity of providing for the expenditure to be incurred for the Commissions under Article 6 of that treaty for the trial of vessels charged with being concerned in the slave trade. The Commissions to be established are 4 in number: 2 of these in possessions belonging to Her Majesty, and 2 within the territories of Her most faithful Majesty.

The British possessions named for these Commissions are the Cape of Good Hope and Jamaica; the Portuguese possessions are Boa Vista, one of the Cape Verd Islands, and Loanda, in the province of Angola, on the western coast of Africa. The appointments to be made in these Commissions, on the part of Her Majesty, are as follows: a Commissioner, an arbitrator, and a registrar to reside at the Cape of Good Hope, and similar officers at Jamaica; a Commissioner and an arbitrator at Boa Vista, and similar officers at Loanda.

Lord Aberdeen submits that the salary to be given to the head Commissioner in each of those courts should be £1,200 a-year; that the salary to the arbitrator should be £800 a-year; and that the salary of the registrar should be £500 a-year. In respect to the pensions which may eventually be granted to the persons holding these situations, his Lordship submits that it will be advisable to adopt a modification of the system according to which pensions are now granted for services under Slave Trade Commissions. He proposes that a graduated scale should be adopted, under which a less sum should be given than has hitherto been granted for the shortest term required; but the sum allotted should eventually be increased in cases in which a more lengthened term of service has been completed, viz., that an officer, after 12 years' service actually completed at his post, may, on then retiring with the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, be recommended for a pension not exceeding $\frac{4}{10}$ths of his salary; and that in case of his serving longer, the pension for which he may be recommended may be increased at the rate of $\frac{1}{10}$th of his salary for such further 6 years' actual service at his post. Lord Aberdeen further proposes to follow the practice hitherto observed of giving to such functionary a free passage to his post; and that the sum allotted to each for his equipment should be equal in amount to 3 months' salary.

Write to Mr. Addington, that my Lords approve of the scale of salaries proposed by Lord Aberdeen for the officers to be appointed by Her Majesty in the Mixed Commissions to be established under the treaty between Great Britain and Portugal at the Cape of Good Hope, Jamaica, Boa Vista, and Loanda, and also of the proposed arrangements with regard to the retired allowances to be hereafter granted to those officers.

Their Lordships also concur with Lord Aberdeen, that the same arrangements with regard to pensions should be carried out in respect to appointments hereafter to be made at the Havana, Rio de Janeiro, and Surinam.

Their Lordships would further suggest, for Lord Aberdeen's consideration, whether the salaries of the officers at these last-mentioned stations may not be reduced, as vacancies occur, to the scale which has been resolved upon for the officers to be appointed to the new Mixed Commissions. Lord Aberdeen will no doubt concur in opinion with their Lordships, that the large increase which is about to take place in the expense of this department of the public service renders it particularly important that the entire establishment should be regulated in future with every practical attention to economy.

With regard to Sierra Leone, their Lordships admit that the unhealthiness of the climate renders it proper that the minimum period of service entitling officers to pensions at that place should be fixed lower than at other stations; but if this period were to be reduced to six years, with an increase at the rate of two-twelfths of the salary for each further three years' actual service on the spot, their Lordships are of opinion that the salaries at present allotted to the officers at that station ought to undergo a very considerable reduction.

Their Lordships see no objection to the course proposed with regard to the passages and outfit of the officers to be now appointed.

PENSIONS TO CHAPLAINS.

Under the Act 22 Vict., c. 26 (Page 237) Pensions are granted to Chaplains attached to British Legations and Consulates abroad, calculated on the amount of the annual salary or contribution made by Her Majesty's Government in each case. The contributions made by British residents towards the support of the Chaplain are not reckoned in the calculation.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE PAY, &c., OF ARTILLERY AND ENGINEER OFFICERS DURING THEIR EMPLOYMENT IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

Treasury Minute dated October 19, 1855. (Parliamentary Paper, No. 58, Session 1863.)—(Ext.)

1st. That when the services of an officer of Royal Artillery or Engineers may be required in a Civil Department, and absence from his regular duties can be allowed without inconvenience to the military service, the Commander-in-chief should grant him leave of absence for a period not exceeding six months; that in such case the officer should remain in regard to rank, pay, and progressive promotion, in the same position as he would have been if granted leave of absence under ordinary circumstances on account of health or private affairs. That the Civil Department employing such officer should make such addition to his military pay as will afford him adequate remuneration, when added to his pay, for the duty he may have to perform.

2nd. In every case and without exception, if the civil duty and employment lasts more than six months, and the officer prefer continuing in such employment instead of going back to his military duty, he should be made supernumerary in his corps; that he should nevertheless retain his rank, with the progressive promotion in his corps to which his position may entitle him: but that he should draw no military pay whatever, the whole of his remuneration being provided by the Civil Department in which he may be employed; that if at the expiration of ten years, or earlier in case his civil employment should cease, he should return to his corps, he should in such case be considered as supernumerary, and fall into the first vacancy; but if after the expiration of ten years he should prefer remaining in his civil employment, he should then be placed on the retired list of the corps; that on such officer first becoming supernumerary, his place in his corps should be filled up by an effective officer, so as to keep the corps always complete and efficient.

REGULATIONS FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF BRITISH CHURCH AFFAIRS

At Foreign Ports and Places.

Made and issued by Her Majesty, through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, under the authority of the Act 6 Geo. IV., Cap. 87.

I. It is the duty of every Consul of Her Majesty, residing at a foreign port where a British chapel is maintained under the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap 87, to pay strict attention to the provisions of that Act, an extract from which is hereunto prefixed; and all British subjects residing at such port, ought in like manner to make themselves acquainted with the same.

II. It will be the duty of Her Majesty's Consul, to see that the orders of the Secretary of State, in regard to the matters to which the above-mentioned Act applies, are obeyed. If they are not obeyed, the allowance granted by Her Majesty's Government will be discontinued.

III. Two general meetings of British residents are to be held in each year at the British Consulate. The Consul will summon those meetings by giving public notice thereof seven days at least before the day of meeting.

IV. The first annual meeting must be held early in the year, and at that Meeting a Committee should be appointed to superintend the temporal affairs of the Church. This Committee is to consist of three officers: namely, a treasurer and two trustees. These three officers are to be elected by a majority of the votes of persons present at such meetings.

V. The Committee will collect subscriptions, and will defray the ordinary expenses of the Church; will carry into effect the resolutions of the general meetings; will attend to any ordinary business connected with Church matters; will examine into any measure which it may be desirable for the General Meetings to adopt; and will report thereupon to the meetings. But such Committee is not empowered to make any regulations; to incur any extraordinary expenditure; nor to take any steps which these regulations do not specifically authorize, without having first obtained the sanction of a general meeting of British Residents; and no meetings, excepting the general meetings, held according to the provisions of the Act, will have the power of making rules and regulations, or of passing resolutions upon subjects connected with the temporal interests of the Church.

VI. At the second general meeting in each year, which should be held towards the close of the year, the Committee will render their accounts, and will make to the meeting a report on the affairs of the Church.

VII. Extraordinary general meetings may be summoned, and held at any time during the year, when the Consul may have any official communication to make to the residents, or when two or more subscribers, entitled to vote, shall make a requisition to the Consul to summon such a Meeting, and shall state the subjects which they may wish thereat to bring under consideration.

VIII. Any person who has subscribed 20*l*., either in one sum, or by an aggregate of several sums, for the purposes mentioned in the Act, is entitled to be present and to vote at general meetings, during the first year after the 20*l*. shall have been so paid; and such person will become entitled to be present and to vote in each subsequent year for which he shall have made a further payment of 3*l*. But no person can be entitled to be present, or to vote at any such meeting, who shall not have actually made such payments before the notice for such meeting shall have been issued by the Consul, and who shall not have been domiciled in the place for six months. And in case no person shall have qualified himself to be present and to vote at general meetings, the management of the Church affairs will devolve entirely on the Consul, who will appoint a Committee to superintend the affairs of the Church under his direction.

IX. All British subjects resorting to or residing at a Foreign Port or Place, where a British Church Establishment is maintained under the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87, have a right to subscribe towards the maintainance of such Church Establishment, and the Treasurer cannot refuse to receive such subscriptions.

X. General meetings have the power of making rules and regulations. All rules, regulations, proceedings, and minutes of general meetings, are to be signed by the Consul as Chairman of the meeting, and are to be entered in a register book which must be kept at the British Consulate. Any subscribers entitled to vote may have access to that register book.

XI. Copies of all such rules, regulations, proceedings, and minutes, are to be transmitted by the Consul, to the Secretary of State, by the first convenient opportunity, for the approbation of Her Majesty.

XII. It is the duty of the Consul to see that the provisions of the Act of Parliament are strictly complied with; and for this purpose it is expressly enacted by the 15th section of the Act, that "no rule, order, or regulations, shall be of any force or effect unless or until the same shall be sanctioned and approved by the Consul." The proceedings of the Committee, therefore, as well as the proceedings of general meetings, must be sanctioned by the Consul. But as the Consul's instructions enjoin him to promote peace, harmony, and good-will amongst Her Majesty's subjects, he will not unnecessarily oppose any measure which the residents may be desirous of adopting. If he should judge such measure to be inexpedient, or contrary to the interests of Her Majesty's service, he should abstain from sanctioning the measure, and should refer it to the Secretary of State, whose decision thereupon will be final.

XIII. The Act of Parliament gives no power to the Residents to interfere with the spiritual administration of the Church; this must be left to the Chaplain who is accountable to the Crown for his proceedings. On the other hand, the Act gives no power to the Chaplain to interfere in the temporal administration of Church affairs; these matters must be left to the general meetings of British residents.

XIV. Only one Chaplain, is to be attached to each Church to which an allowance is granted by Her Majesty's Government under the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87.

XV. All Chaplains who are appointed under the Act, hold such their offices for and during the pleasure of the Crown, and no longer; and the pleasure of the Crown is to be signified to them by the Secretary of State.

XVI. Sacramental alms and oblations are to be distributed by the Chaplain, and are not to be entered in the Treasurer's accounts.

XVII. All Church accounts are to be kept in the currency of the country in which the chapel is situated; but when those accounts are submitted to Her Majesty's Government, they must be rendered in the form which is annexed to these regulations, and the equivalent of the principal items inserted in the accounts must be stated in British sterling money, at the average exchange of the year.

XVIII. Her Majesty's Government is authorized, by the Act of Parliament, to grant in each year, to British Church Establishments at foreign ports, sums not exceeding the amount actually raised during the year by voluntary subscription or by rate among Her Majesty's subjects resident at such ports. Her Majesty's Government will not, however, always grant the full amount authorized by the Act, but will grant only such amount as may be deemed expedient by the Secretary of State, after he shall have examined the Church accounts. Those accounts must be rendered to Her Majesty's Government as soon as possible after the 31st of December in each year.

XIX. The Consul and the Chaplain are to recollect that the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87, which authorizes Her Majesty's Government to afford pecuniary assistance to British chapels at foreign ports, does not allude to, and therefore will not render valid, any marriage between British subjects, or between a British subject and a foreigner, which may be solemnized in such chapels, unless such marriage be declared or deemed valid by some other law of the United Kingdom.

XX. The preceding Regulations respecting the management of Church affairs are also to be applied to the management of the affairs of British burial grounds provided at foreign ports under the provisions of the Act 6 Geo. IV, c. 87. The affairs of the burial ground should, however, be kept distinct from the Church affairs. The annual expense of maintaining such burial grounds in order should be paid by fees on interments; and whenever these fees produce a surplus beyond the expenses, such surplus must be in British Government or other public sufficient security in the joint names of the Consul and of two Trustees; and no portion of such surplus can be applied to any other purposes than the repairs of the burial ground, without the previous sanction of the Secretary of State, signified through the Consul The interests on money so invested should annually be received, and should be carried to the credit of the burial ground fund; and a report of the state of this fund, together with the burial ground accounts, must be sent off to the Secretary of State, as soon as possible after the 31st of December in each year.

XXI. These Regulations are to be recorded in the office of the Consul and shall be of full force, effect, and authority over all Her Majesty's subjects resident at

ORDER IN COUNCIL REGULATING THE ADMISSION OF PERSONS TO THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, May 21, 1855;

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, it is expedient to make provision for testing, according to fixed rules, the qualifications of the young men who may from time to time be proposed to be appointed to the junior situations in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable Sir Edward Ryan, Assistant Comptroller-General of the Exchequer; John George Shaw Lefevre, Esq.,† Companion of the Bath, Clerk Assistant to the House of Lords; and Edward Romilly, Esq.,† Chairman of the Board of Audit; or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them or any of them; shall be Commissioners for conducting the examination of the young men so proposed to be appointed to any of the junior situations in the Civil Establishments as aforesaid, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty, and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties hereinafter assigned to them.

And it is hereby ordered that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury do prepare and submit to Parliament an estimate for the remuneration of a Secretary to the said Commissioners, and of such Examiners and others as may be required to assist in the performance of their duties.

And it is hereby ordered, that all such young men as may be proposed to be appointed to any junior situation in any department of the Civil Service shall, before they are admitted to probation, be examined by or under the directions of the said Commissioners, and shall receive from them a certificate of qualification for such situation.

And it shall be the duty of the Commissioners, in respect of every such candidate, before granting any such certificate as aforesaid—

1st, to ascertain that the candidate is within the limits of age prescribed in the department to which he desires to be admitted;

2nd, to ascertain that the candidate is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties:

3rd, to ascertain that the character of the candidate is such as to qualify him for public employment; and 4th, to ascertain that the candidate possesses the requisite knowledge and ability for the proper discharge of his official duties.

The Rules applicable to each department under each of the above heads should be settled, with the assistance of the Commissioners, according to the discretion of the chief authorities of the department; but, except that candidates for admission to any of the junior situations in any branch of the Civil Service will be required to obtain certificates of qualification as aforesaid, such Examining Board shall not make any alteration in respect to the nomination or appointment of candidates by those who are or may be charged with the duty of nomination and appointment.

After the candidate has passed his Examination, and received his certificate of qualification from the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the chief of the department for which he is intended, and he shall not be finally appointed to the public service unless upon satisfactory proofs of his fitness being furnished to the chief of the department after 6 months' probation.

And it is, lastly, hereby ordered, that in case the chief of any department considers it desirable to appoint to any situation, for which there are no prescribed limits of age, a person of mature age, having acquired special qualifications for the appointment in other pursuits, such person shall not, in virtue of this Order, be required to obtain any certificate from the said Commissioners in order to obtaining such appointment, but the chief of the department shall cause the appointment of any person not previously examined to be formally recorded as having been made on account of special qualifications

The Accumulated Fund of this Society is of unusual magnitude in proportion to its liabilities.

All the Profits belong to the Assured, and are applied to the gradual reduction and ultimate extinction of their Premiums, a result which may be expected to occur in the average of cases, in about 20 years from the date of the policy.

No Commission being allowed for the introduction of business, nor any outlay incurred for Agencies, the expenses of management are very small, and the profits to the Assurers correspondingly increased.

Endowments and Endowment Annuities to Children are granted on favourable terms.

DYSENTERY, CHOLERA, FEVER, AGUE, &c.

CHLORODYNE.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See The Times, July 13, 1864.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. Extract from Medical Times, January 12, 1866.—"Is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is the best and most certain remedy in COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, CONSUMPTION, NEURALGIA, RHEUMATISM, &c.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is a certain cure in CHOLERA, DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, COLICS, &c.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

From A. MONTGOMERY, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay.—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when all other remedies had failed."

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle. Sole Manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury London. The immense demand enables the proprietors to reduce the price; it is now sold in bottles, 1*s*. 1½*d*., 2*s*. 9*d*., 4*s*. 6*d*., and 11*s*.

SIR BERNARD BURKE'S
(ULSTER KING OF ARMS)
GENEALOGICAL AND HERALDIC DICTIONARY
OF THE
Peerage & Baronetage of the British Empire.

New Edition, corrected throughout, complete in one volume, royal 8vo., handsomely bound in Cloth.

Price 38s.

This Peerage and Baronetage is the only complete book of the kind extant. It gives the historical and genealogical account and present state of all the Peers and Baronets, with their armorial bearings engraved and described; it furnishes full details respecting all the Archbishops and Bishops and their families; it enters fully into the subject of precedence, and sets forth all the Rolls, Authorizations, and Usages, which regulate it; Foreign Titles borne by British Subjects; Peerages recently Extinct and Dormant; the Orders of Knighthood, with their Insignia depicted and explained; the List of Knights and Knights Bachelors; the Mottoes of all the Peers and Baronets, with Translations and Illustrations; and an Alphabetical List of the Seats and Mansions. The above are the main features of the work, and such a combined and immense amount of information as this book contains would be vainly sought for in any other Peerage or Baronetage past or present.

". . . Sir Bernard Burke's PEERAGE AND BARONETAGE is eminently the book for the family historian and antiquary. Indeed, his accounts of the great historic families of our land—the Howards, the Talbots, the Stanleys, the Nevilles, for instance—rise almost to the dignity of biographical chapters of English history; and he who is well read in Burke will sit down to the study of Tindal and Rapin, and Hume, or Froude and Macaulay, with half his difficulties already mastered. . . . "—Times.

SIR BERNARD BURKE'S
OF THE
Landed Gentry of Great Britain & Ireland.

Fifth Edition, revised, enlarged, and corrected throughout, complete in two volumes. Handsomely bound in cloth, uniform with the Peerage and Baronetage.

Price £3 3s.

"A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution."—Post. "The whole forms a fine and full account of the gentry of these realms—of that class 'who,' says Sir Bernard in his preface, 'possess, though undistinguished by hereditary titles, an undeniable right, from antiquity of race, extent of property, and brilliancy of achievements, to take foremost rank among the lesser nobility of Europe.'"—*Illus. Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Genealogical and Heraldic Dictionary of the Peerage and Baronetage of the British Empire. New edition, corrected throughout, complete in one volume, royal 8vo., handsomely bound in cloth. Price 38s.

This Peerage and Baronetage is the only complete book of the kind extant. It gives the historical and genealogical account and present state of all the Peers and Baronets, with their armorial bearings engraved and described; it furnishes full details respecting all the Archbishops and Bishops and their families; it enters fully into the subject of precedence, and sets forth all the Rolls, Authorizations, and Usages, which regulate it; Foreign Titles borne by British Subjects; Peerages recently Extinct and Dormant; the Orders of Knighthood, with their Insignia depicted and explained; the List of Knights and Knights Bachelors; the Mottoes of all the Peers and Baronets, with Translations and Illustrations; and an Alphabetical List of the Seats and Mansions. The above are the main features of the work, and such a combined and immense amount of information as this book contains would be vainly sought for in any other Peerage or Baronetage past or present.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Genealogical and Heraldic Dictionary of the Landed Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland. Fifth edition, revised, enlarged, and corrected throughout, complete in two volumes. Handsomely bound in cloth, uniform with the Peerage and Baronetage. Price £3 3*s.* 0*d.*

"A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution."—Post. "The whole forms a fine and full account of the Gentry of these realms—of that class 'who,' says Sir Bernard in his preface, 'possess, though undistinguished by hereditary titles, an undeniable right, from antiquity of race, extent of property, and brilliancy of achievements, to take foremost rank among the lesser nobility of Europe.'"—Illus. Lond. News.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Encyclopædia of Heraldry, or General Armoury of England, Scotland, and Ireland, comprising a Registry of all Armorial Bearings from the earliest times. Third edition, with a Supplement, cloth. Price 21s.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Genealogical History of the Dormant, Abeyant, Forfeited, and Extinct Peerages of the British Empire. Illustrated by Steel Engravings of the principal Arms. Royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 2s.

In this new edition the history of each title is continued to the present time; and the various dignities are traced down to their existing representatives.

"By the publication of this splendid volume, Ulster King of Arms completes the structure of information which he has been so long engaged in rearing, and in whose construction he has displayed not only the accuracy and research of the herald, but the generalization, the appreciation of the historian, and has shown himself possessed, in the midst of the laboriousness of dry details, of a quick, vivid, and poetic fancy. Every thing which tends to individualise history increases its interest, impresses its events upon the memory, and removes it farther from the category of dry and formal study; and such works as those of Sir Bernard Burke lend to the familiar scenes and places suggestive importance difficult to exaggerate.—Morning Post.

Hertslet's Treaties, Laws, &c., relating to Commerce, Navigation, the Slave Trade, Postal Arrangements, Copyright, Extradition, Trade Marks, &c.; wherein are defined the Rights and Privileges of British Subjects Abroad, and of Foreigners in the British Dominions. To which is added an Index of Subjects to the entire Series. 8vo., 40s., Cloth.

Index to Hertslet's Treaties.—An Index of Subjects to the entire Series (xiii. vols.); forming a complete Digest of all the Engagements existing between Great Britain and Foreign Powers, by Treaty or otherwise, relating to Commerce, Navigation, Extradition, Trade Marks, Marriages, Wills, &c., &c. Compiled by EDWARD HERTSLET, Esq., Librarian and Keeper of the Papers of the Foreign Office. 8vo., on thick Paper, and on one side only, 10s., Cloth.

Foreign Office List for 1873, forming a complete British Diplomatic and Consular Handbook, exhibiting the rank, standing, and various services of every person employed in the Foreign Office, the Diplomatic Corps, and the Consular Body. Also Regulations respecting Examinations, Passports, Foreign Orders, &c. With Maps, showing where Her Majesty's Ambassadors, Ministers, Consuls, and others, are resident abroad; together with a List of Foreign Diplomatic and Consular Representatives within the Queen's Dominions. Compiled by EDWARD HERTSLET, Librarian and Keeper of the Papers, Foreign Office. Corrected throughout, cloth. Price 5s.

"The Foreign Office List gives the most careful notices of every person depending on, or in any way connected with, the Foreign Office, from the Minister to the youngest supernumerary clerk in his department, and from the Ambassador to the Cabinet Messenger. It moreover enlivens the dull monotony of official detail with the biographical notices of the functionaries whose names it records. It is to be found in all the Chancelleries abroad; no Attaché of a Mission, great or small, thinks his library complete without it; and it is one of the first objects that attracts the eye of the British traveller as he waits for his passport visa in a Consul's office." Times (from our own Correspondent).

Colonial Office List for 1873, com- prising Historical Notices of the Colonial Dependencies of Great Britain, together with Statistical and other general Information, including the Names and Services of the Principal Officers under the several Colonial Governments. It embodies the Colonial Regulations, the Rules respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Colonial Office, for Ceylon Writerships, and Hong Kong Cadetships; the Pension Minutes of several Colonies, and the Imperial Act under which Pensions are granted to Colonial Governors, with a Map, showing the British Dominions in every part of the World. Compiled under the sanction of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, from Official Records, &c., by WILLIAM ROBINSON, of the Colonial Office. Corrected throughout, cloth. Price 6s.

"The value of this book will be better established by five minutes' reference to its contents, than by five columns of commendation."—English News. "The Editor possesses the fullest means of obtaining the fullest information, and the general design is extremely good."—Spectator. "Among other interesting features is a list of persons now living, who hold, or have held any important Colonial Office. It is a most useful work."—South Australian Register.

Maude; or, The Anglican Sister of Mercy. Edited by MISS WHATELY, Author of "The Life of Archbishop Whately." This is an authentic Narrative, in which MISS WHATELY gives a detailed account of every-day life in an Anglican Sisterhood, with Original Letters, which enable us to judge impartially and fairly of the principles which govern these Institutions. It is a Work peculiarly important at the present time. New and cheaper Edition. One vol., post 8vo., cloth. Price 2s. 6d.

"This is not, as the title might import, a tale. The only assumed parts are the names of the persons and places involved in the painful transactions narrated. We commend the book to wide circulation in these times of perilous reaction."—Record. "We are assured that this a true story. Miss Whately pledges herself to its entire authenticity and absolute truth. Her father, the late Archbishop of Dublin, urged its publication, and would have edited it himself if he had lived long enough. Such a testimony to its importance is of no little value. The revelations made are decidedly noteworthy, and the interior of an Anglican sisterhood deserved an exposure."—Spectator.

CRACROFT'S TRUSTEES' GUIDE,

Being a Synopsis of the powers of Investment ordinarily given to Trustees, with General Directions and Tables of Securities.

Price 1s.; 1s. 3d. by Post within the United Kingdom.

PREFACE.

The difficulty experienced by Trustees in ascertaining the scope of their powers of invest and the securities of which they may prudently avail themselves, have induced me to prepar publication; nor can I doubt that a practical and concise guide in plain words will be indul accepted by the public. The Tables of Securities have been made as complete as possible, wi view of rendering them useful to everyone—Trustee or otherwise. No pains have been spared the accuracy of the information afforded, although it has been considered unnecessary to encumb book with references to Authorities, Acts of Parliament excepted.
